Staunton Elks Lodge #351

September 2018

From the Exalted Ruler

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Will it ever stop raining? That seems to have been the theme for August.

Thanks to all the members who came out for Membership Appreciation. We had a good crowd and lots of fun. Although I don't think the Cake Walk emcee knew what he was doing.

Special thanks to all of the guest cooks in August! Some really great meals!

On September 18th the Lodge will be serving pizza to all the new United States citizens after they take their oath at the Naturalization ceremony at the Frontier Culture Museum. The Ceremony is open to the public and begins at 10:00am.

Also on September 29th the Original Rhondels will be at the Lodge. The Dance begins at 8:30. Sign up at the bar.

I want to take the opportunity to thank our dedicated Rathskeller staff and our House Committee Chair.

Leslie, Jasmine, Ellen, Jesse, and Robbie do so much for our Lodge before, during, and after hours of operation. Every wonder why our food costs are so low; did you ever think about who counts tickets and oversees our gaming; every wonder who cleans up the popcorn on the floor; empties the deep fryer grease; who cleans all of your bottles; stocks the beer; makes the dinner menu; does the deposits and meets the repairman at 8:00am? It takes a team effort and our team is terrific. Leslie, our Club Manager, works tirelessly to ensure that the Lodge is ready for you, and we all can hear her friendly bellow, "Welcome to the Elks Lodge!"

Jasmine will be headed out on maternity leave soon, and right on time Ellen is back from Madagascar to step right in.

Please take the time to thank all of them for their work. Especially our House Committee Chair who does more than you will ever know. Our Lodge would not be a success if it weren't for the entire team!

Fraternally yours,

Justin Reiter, Exalted Ruler

Elks Activities Committee

The Elks 351 Community Activities Committee will be participating in the Christ United Methodist Church Yard Sale on Saturday, September 8, 2018 from 7-noon. All proceeds will go to charity. Any member wishing to donate items for our yard sale please bring clean & priced items (boxed) and place in the large lodge room under the TV from now and until Wednesday, Sept 5th. NO BULKY HEAVY ITEMS OR CLOTHES. Our next Committee meeting will be Wednesday, Sept. 16th at 6:30 at the Lodge. Agenda will be discussing and planning dates to help Barbara Monger clothes shop for the Dixon Pre-School children. Diana Craig will be constructing a Fall Burlap Wreath also. All Elk members are welcome to attend.

Gene Fitzgerald Trap Shoot Update

On August 4th the Staunton Elks held the 12th Annual Trap and Skeet Shoot in honor of Gene Fitzgerald. The event was able to raise $1836 to be donated to the Virginia Chapter of Wounded Warriors.

Twenty-Five shooters actively participated in the shooting activities and others came to watch and generously donate to make the charity a success.

The event was hosted by the Shenandale Gun Club, who each year generously allows use of their facilities. Special thanks go to Bubba Byrd and Paul Hiveley who each year work the registration table and account for the money.

Also a special thank you to Watson Lewis, Jeff Wood, Randy Combs, and Bruce Rupert for helping to work the traps and set them up.

Chris Kincheloe, an Elk and owner of Nuckoles Gun Works, donated all the shotgun shells used during the event. We thank you Chris for your generosity.

Jake Schindler of Valley Trust and Insurance donated the chicken wings, which were delicious.

To all those that attended and made contributions—thank you all!

This event each year allows the Elks to maintain one of its solid principles as a benevolent organization: "Elks Never for a Vet."

Thank you, Bill Schindler
